Mr. Stebbins

During our years at Wheeler, you have become an integral part of our lives. No limits bounded your time and energies; you functioned continuously, multiplying our knowledge by imparting the sum of yours. We shall miss you, for as a friend and as a teacher you remain unequalled. And so, the dependent variables of the class of 1975 dedicate this yearbook to you.

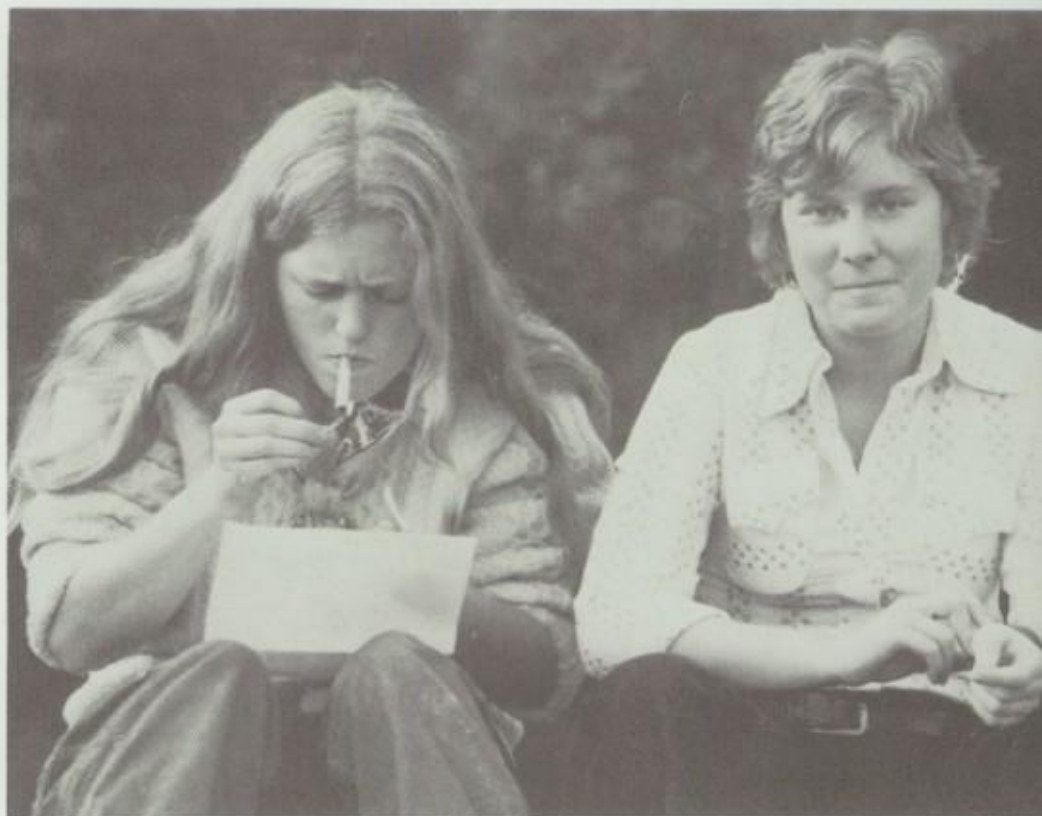

The Wheeler World

A World Revolves within Wheeler as Wheeler revolves with the world. The finite horizons of the earth circumscribe the infinite horizons of the school.

A World of People . . .

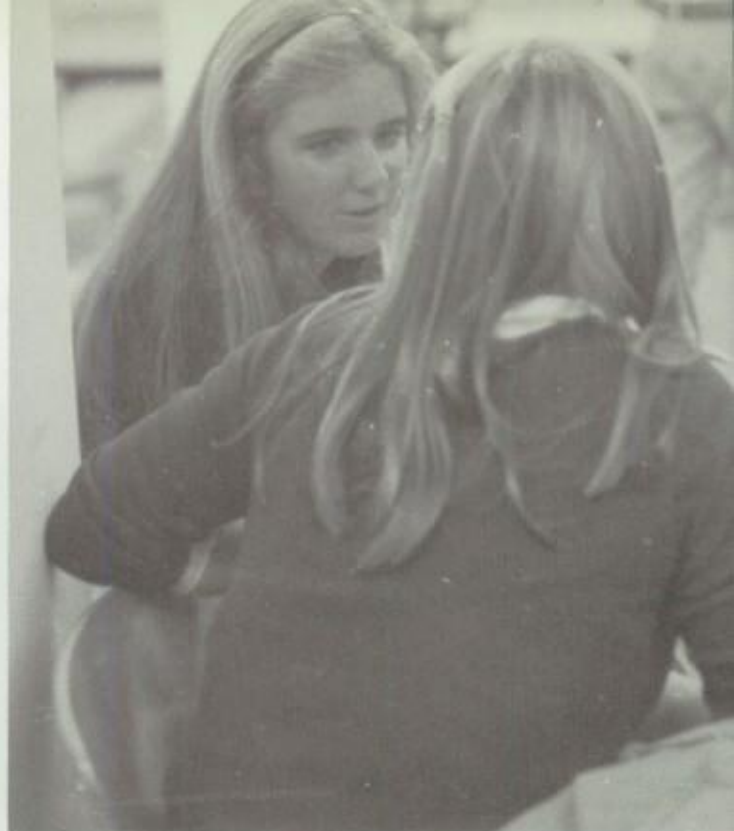

A World of Thought, but Also One of Jigs . . .

A World of Work . . .

A World of Fun . . .

Of Faces and Places . . .

Of Publications . . .

Of Bargains . . .

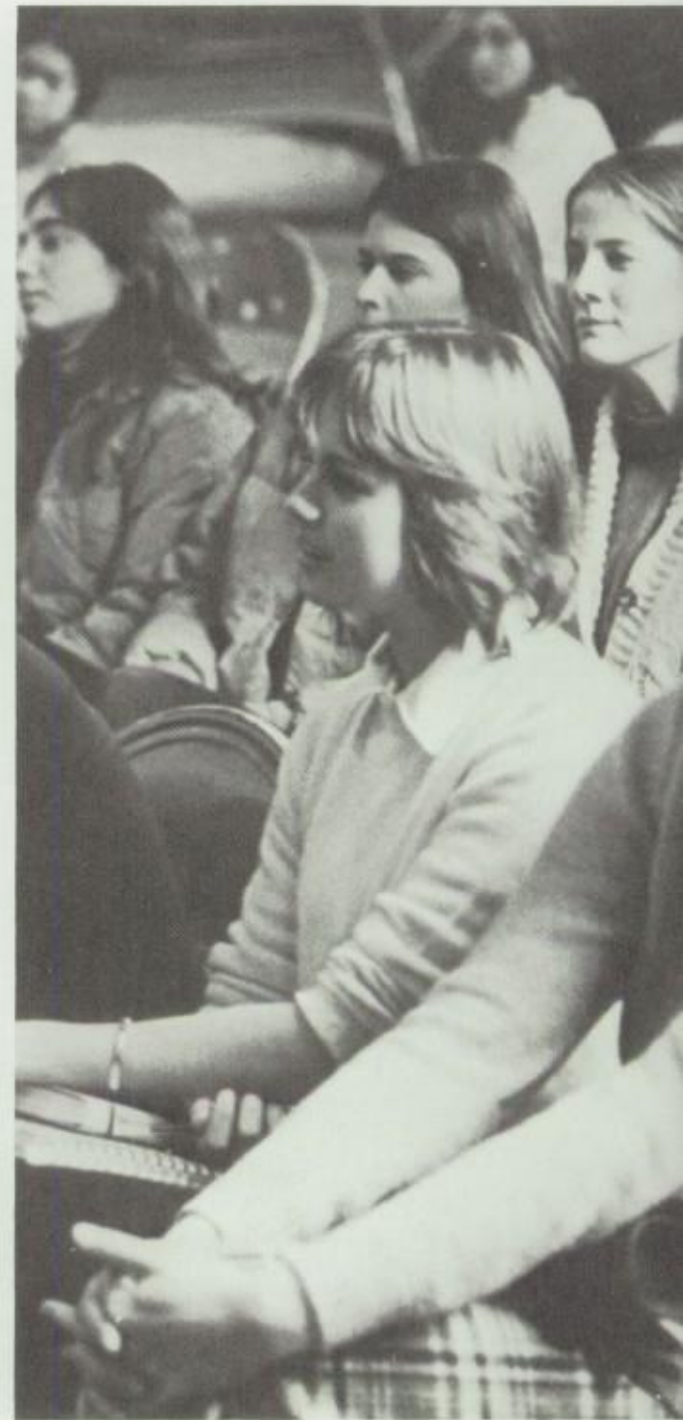

A World of Leadership and Laughter . . .

A World of Service . . .

Of Cameras and . . .

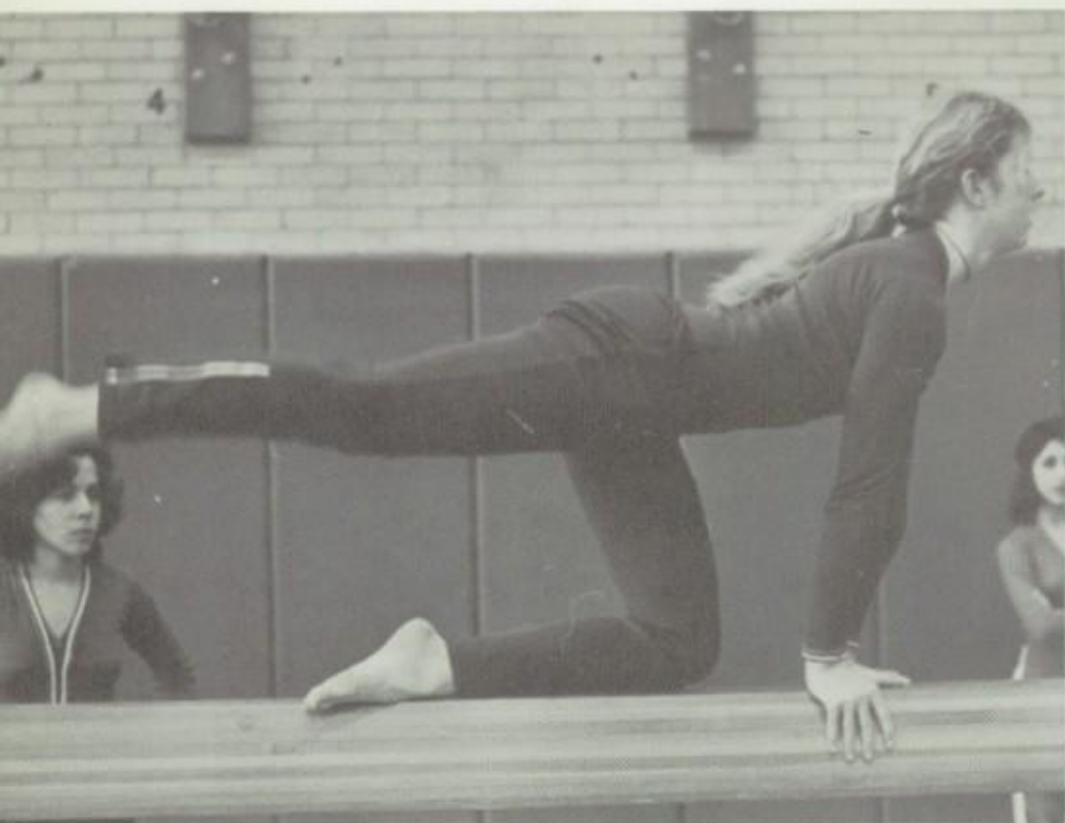

Of Sport . . .

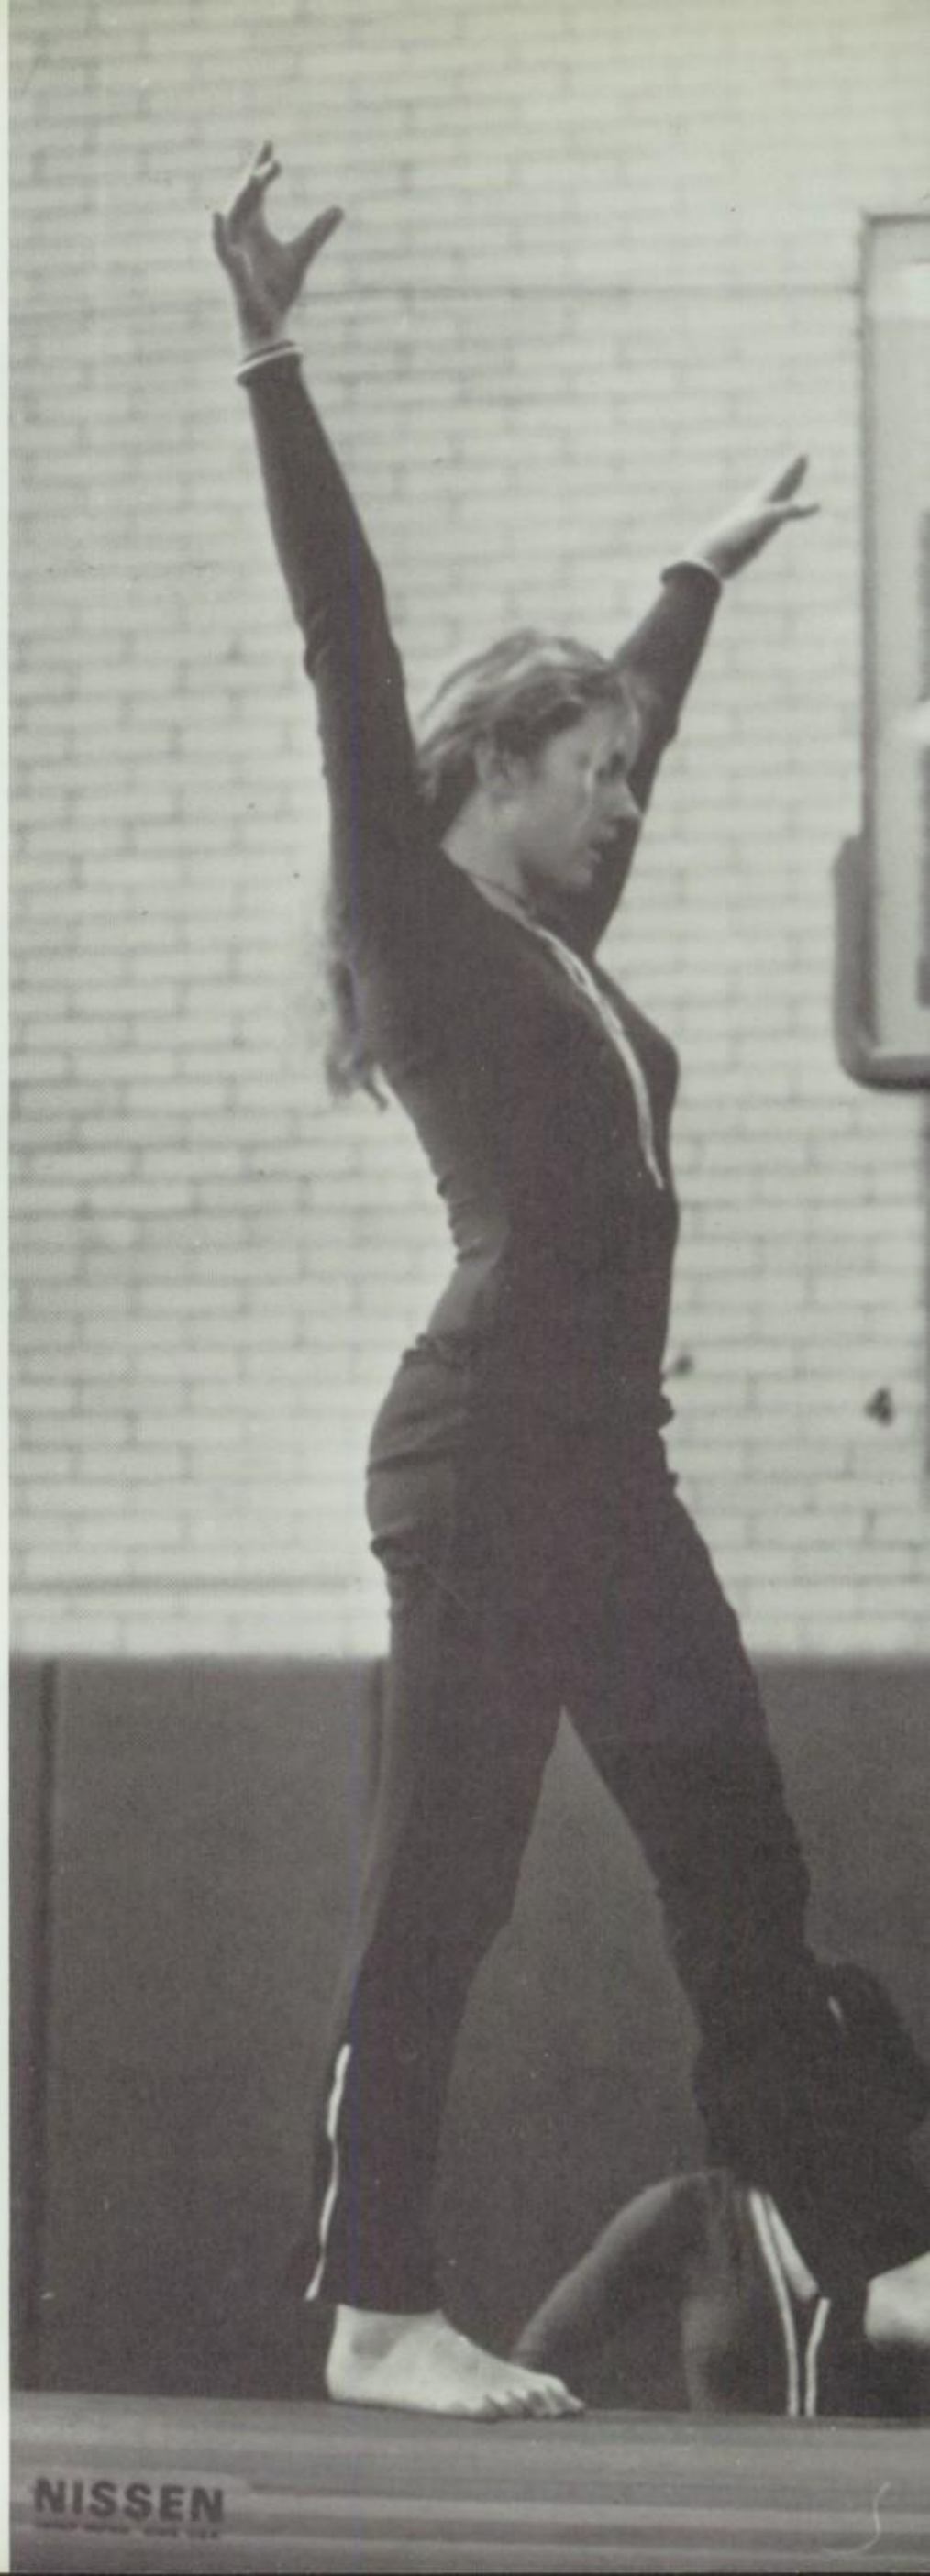

Of Contests . . .

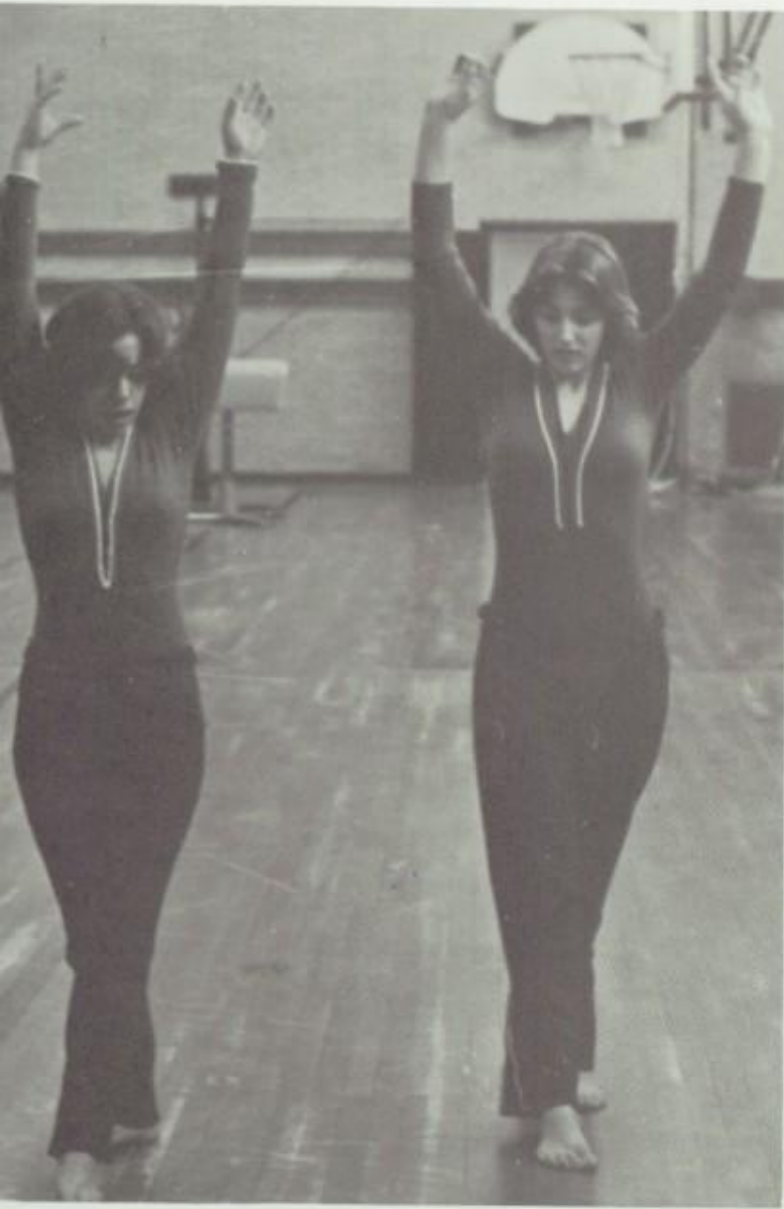

Of Precision . . .

And Renovation . . .

A World of Art . . .

Of Song . . .

Of Groups and Players . . .

Ginny - A real pleasure having you in class this year
 Have a good summer - Mrs. Gusti

A World of Beginnings . . .

Of Picnics . . .

Of Gourmets and of Independents . . .

A World of Mirth . . .

And Merriment

Seniors

Heidi Brown

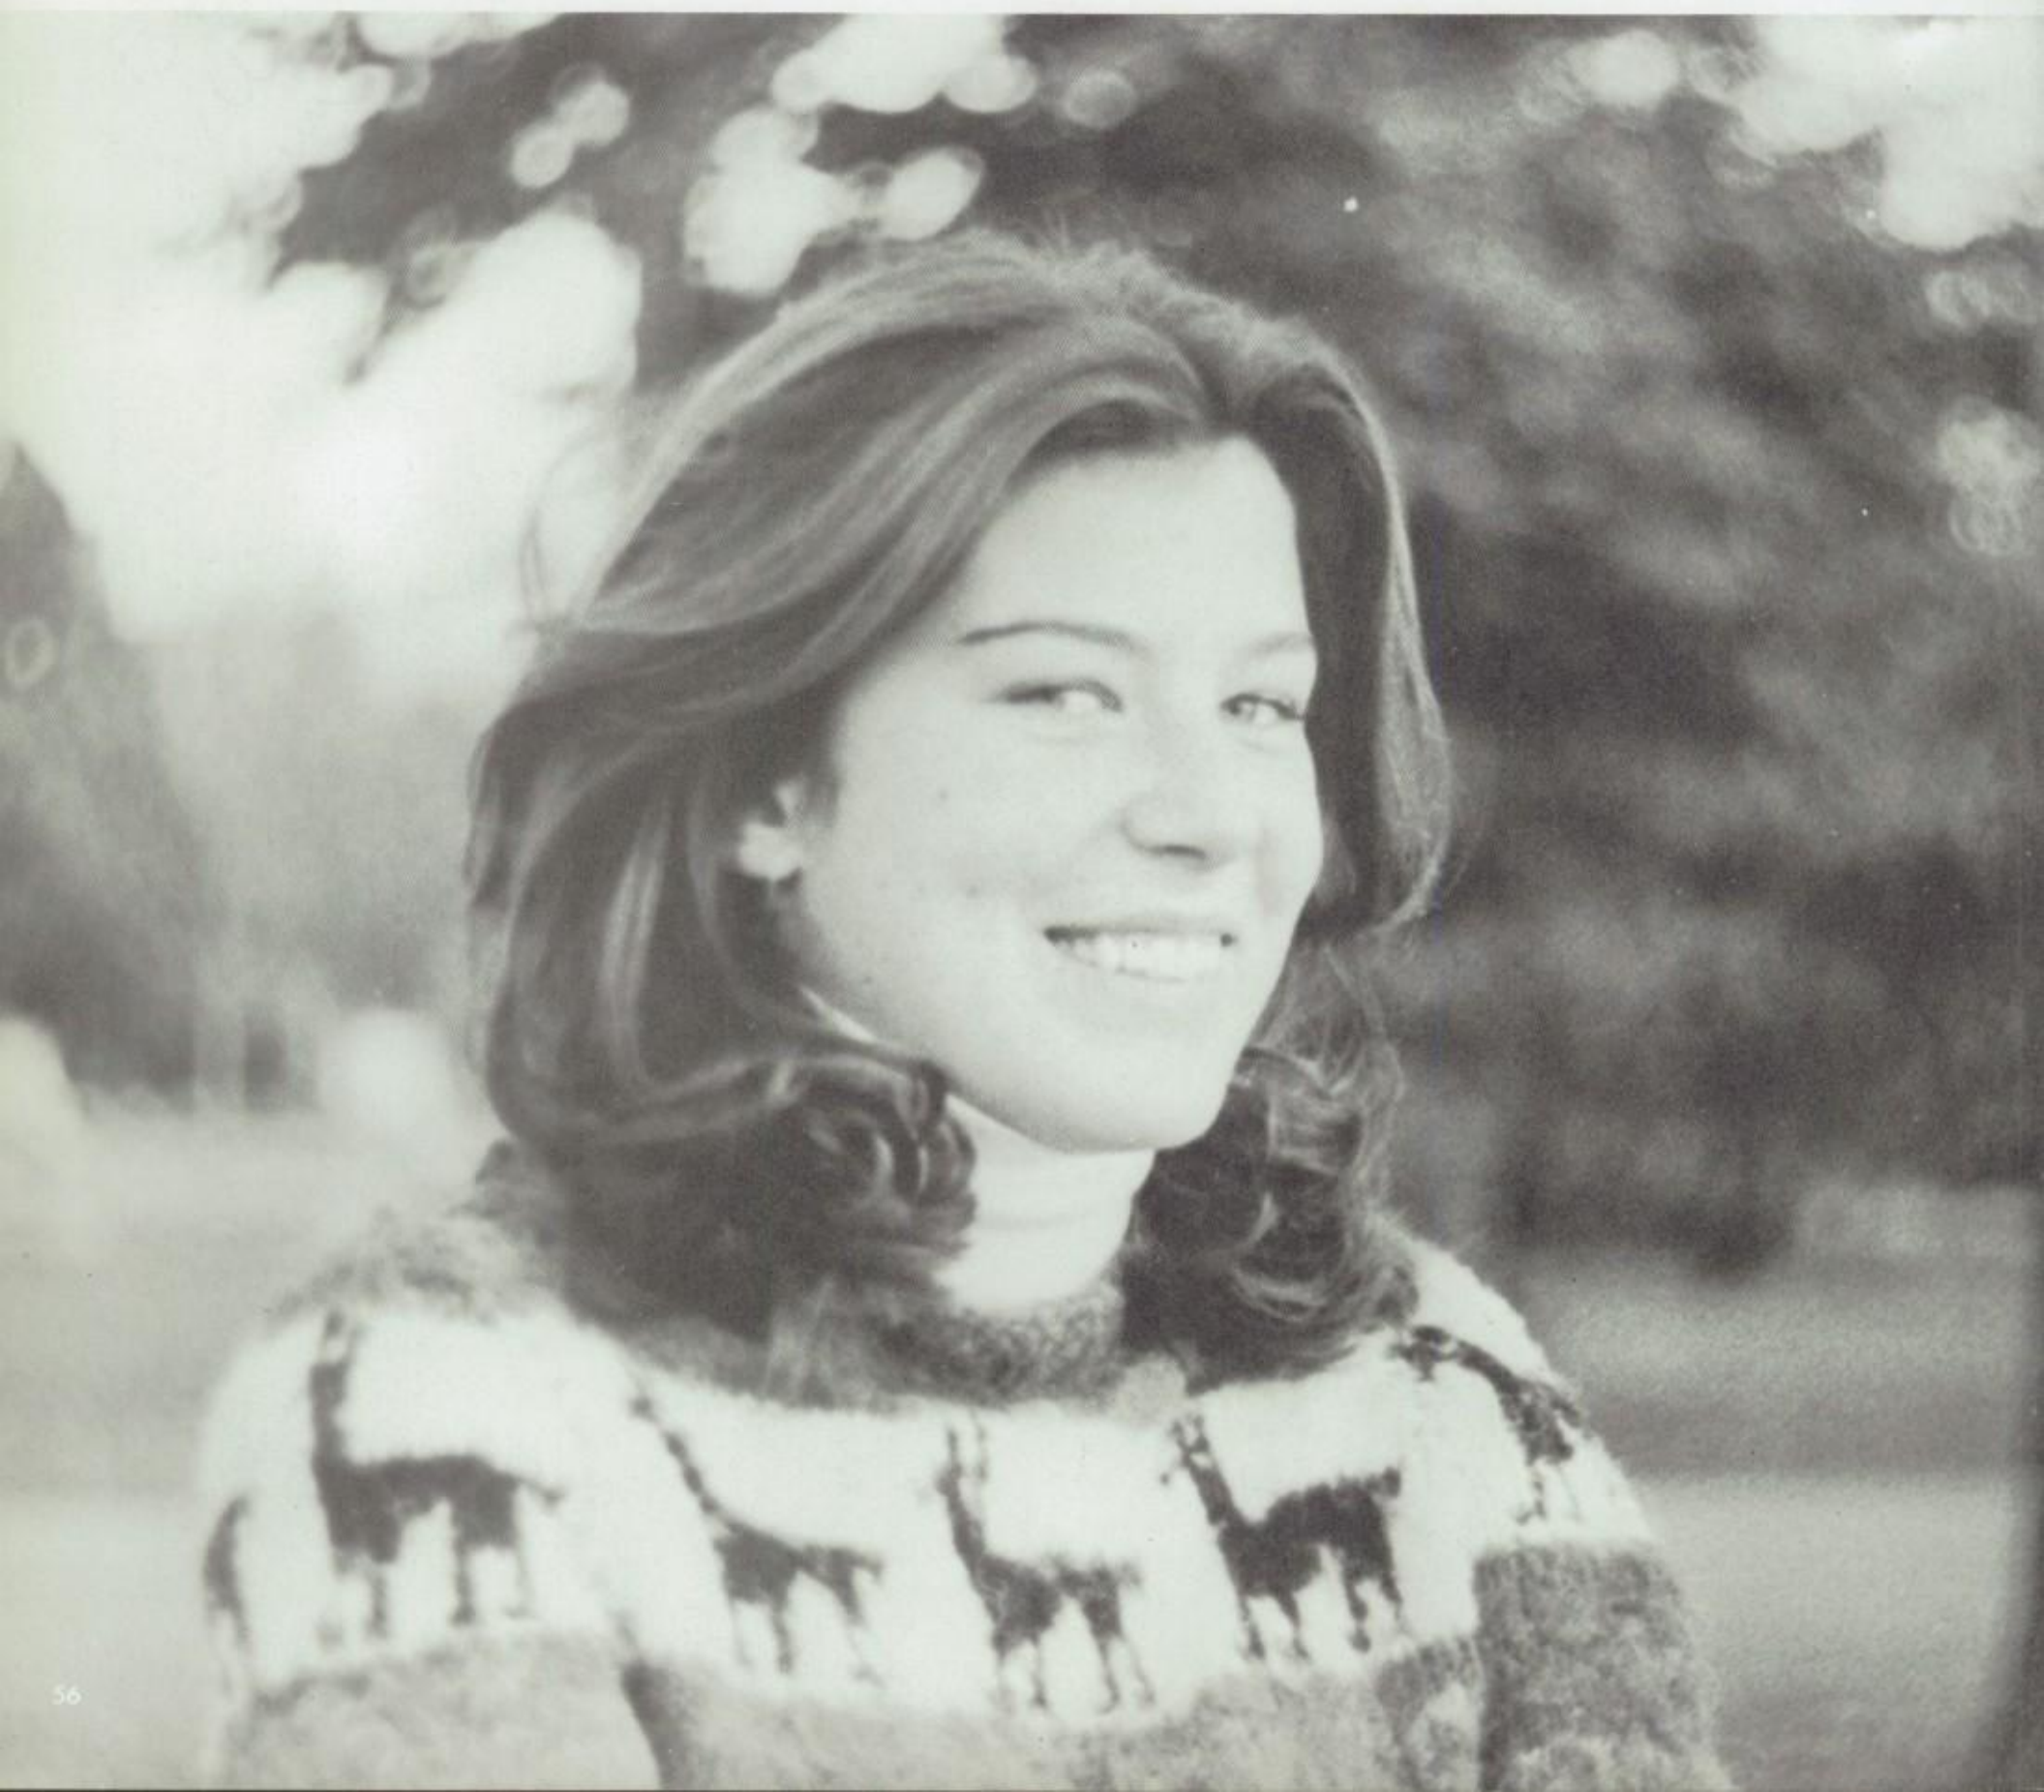

I want to be strong.
I want to laugh along.
I want to belong to the living,
Alive, alive, I want to get up and jive.
I want to wreck my stockings
In some jukebox dive . . .

— Joni Mitchell

Cinny Brown

So, as you go to find yourself,
Please take your time.
You may pass yourself by, reaching too high,
Wanting the other side of life

Alexis Budlong

In battle or business,
 whatever the game,
In law or in love, it is ever the same;
In the struggle for power, or the scramble for self,
Let this be your motto,
 Rely on yourself!
For, whether the prize be a ribbon or throne,
The victor is he who can go it alone!

— John Godfrey Saxe

Patty Capaldi

There can be no rainbow without a

Kathleen Cooper

He may ride down the road at a hundred and ten,

Exclaiming his thoughts about prisons and men.

He may tell you his dreams, maybe something obscene,

And you'll swear you've been through it, but you don't know just when.

So you're curious, friend, 'bout this man who I speak,

For he tears you and scares you out of your sleep.

I'm sure you will find if you open your mind.

It is you and not he who is really the freak . . .

— Aztec Two-step

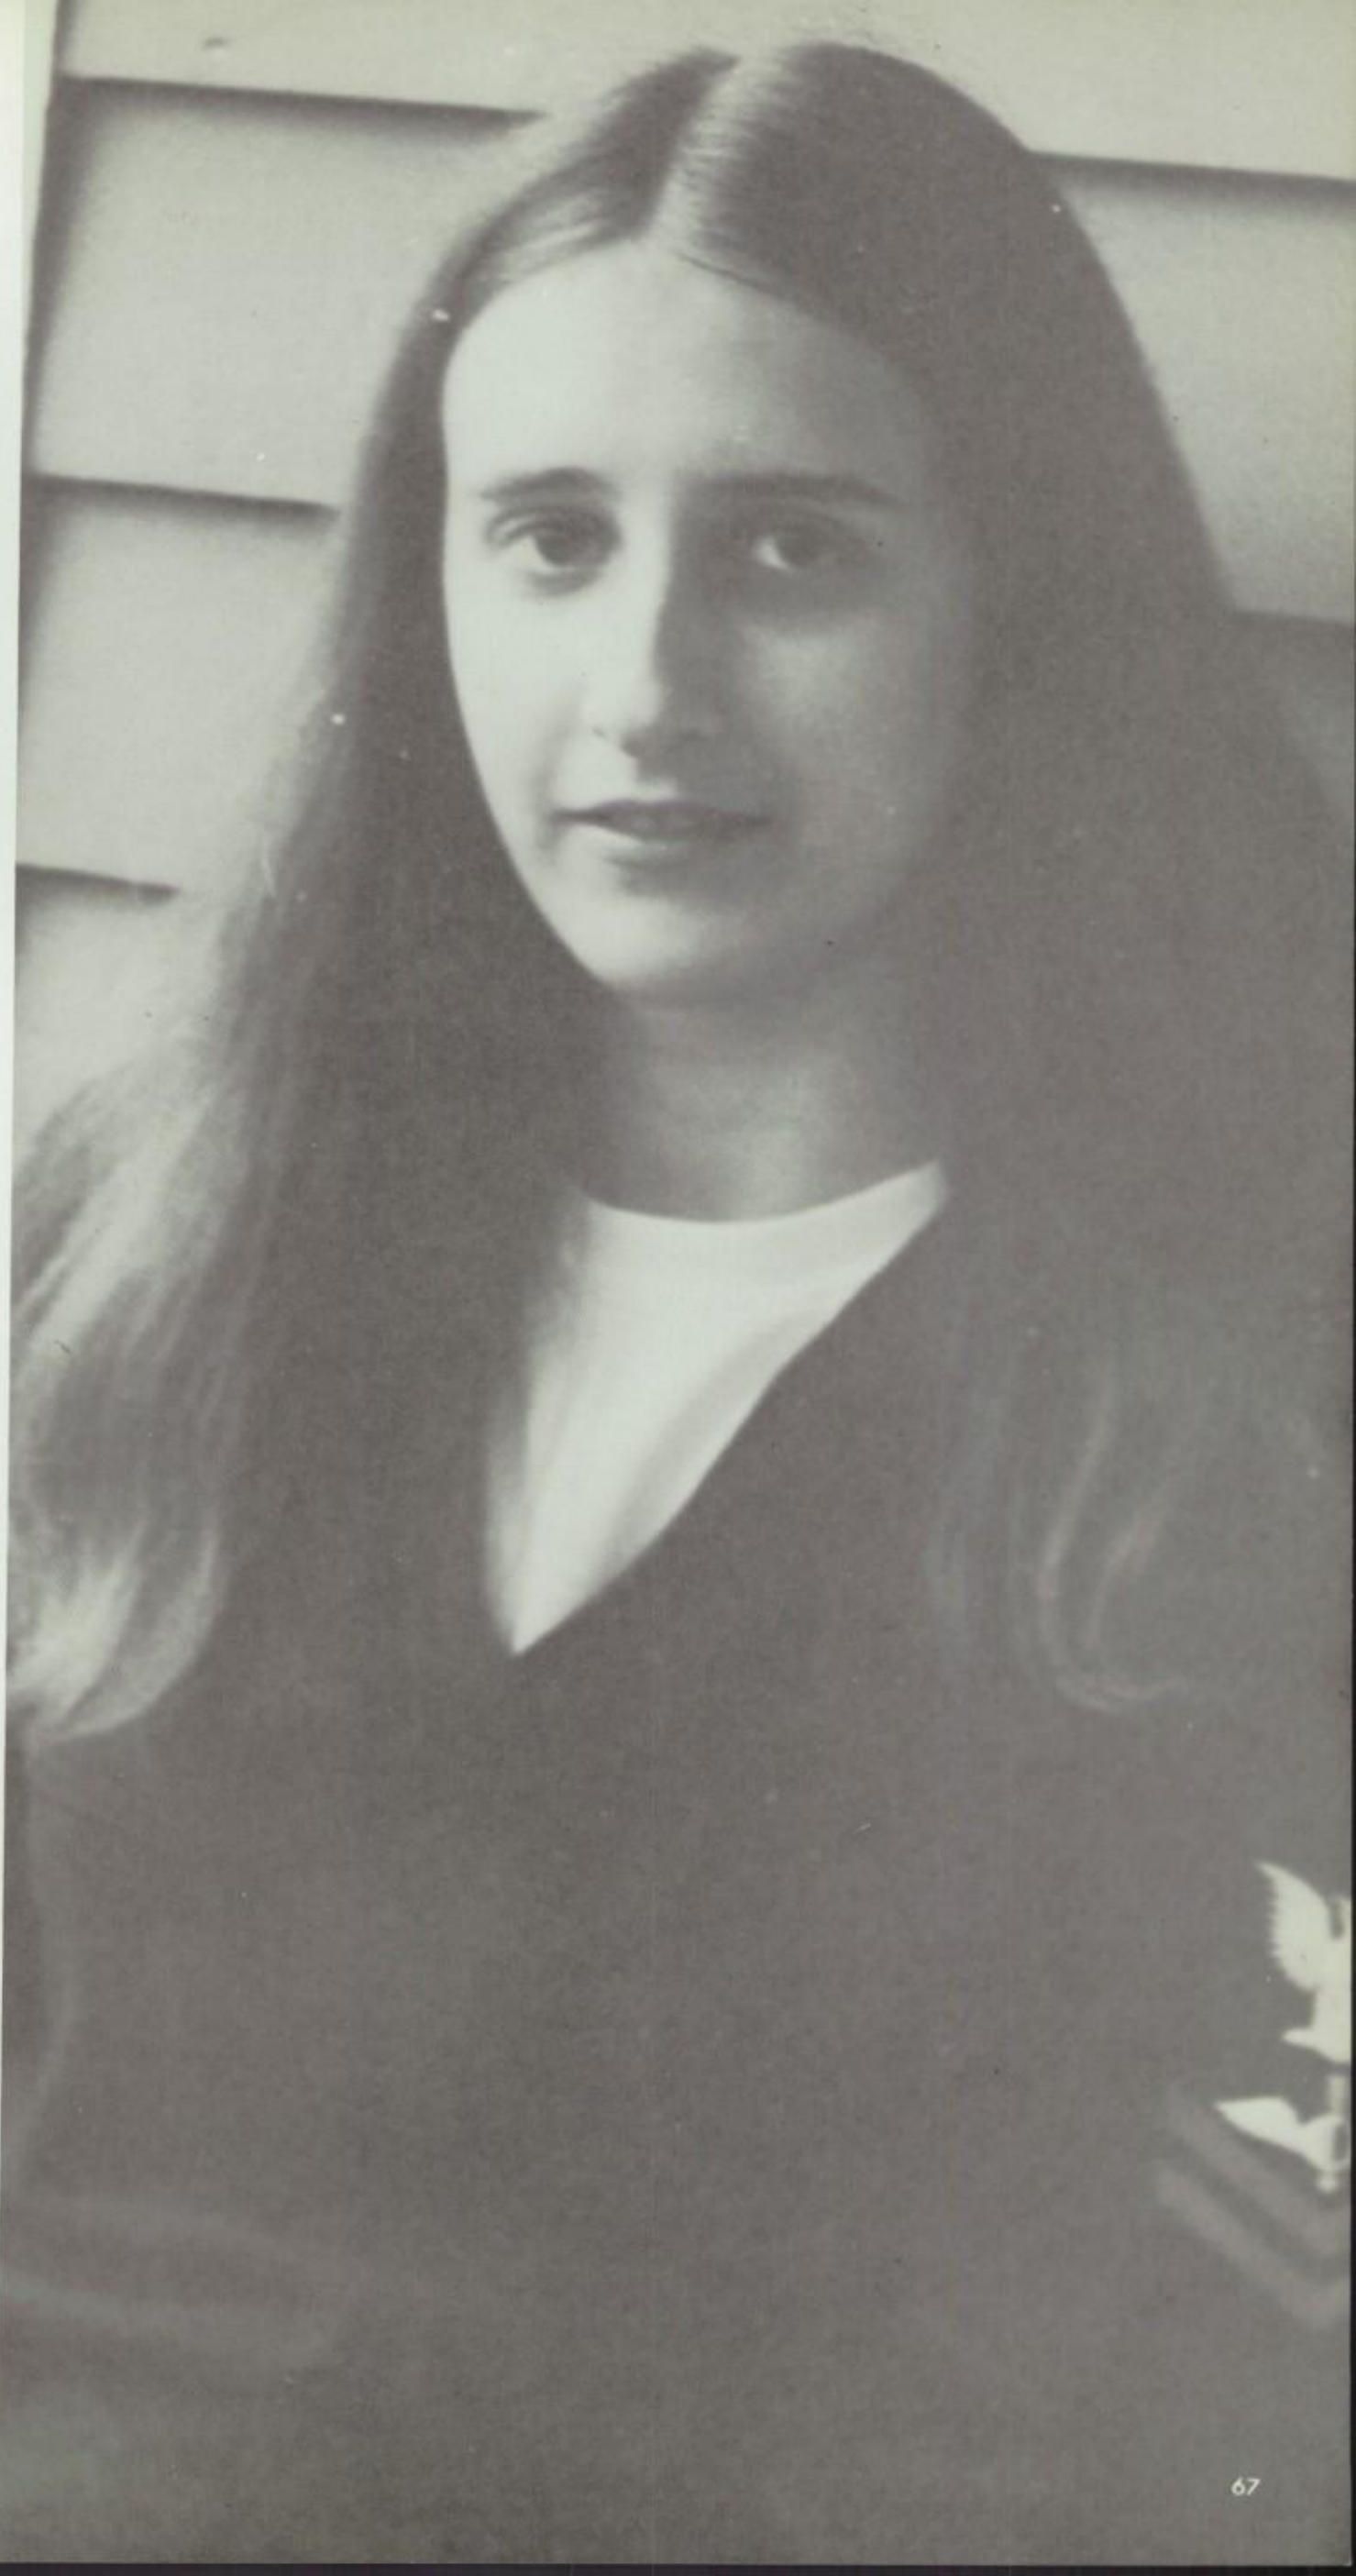

Tobey Dubois

They are playing a game.
They are playing at not Playing a game. If I show them I see they are,
I shall break the rules and they will punish me.
I must play their game of not seeing I see the game.

— R. D. Laing

Linda Cox

When I am gone, if you should remember me, remember me not as a body, but rather as a mass of ever-extending shallows and depths. For I am the river that swells and ebbs; the endless flow of darkness and light.

Elaine Eldert

Why not? There's nothing better to do today!

Kathleen Irene Emmett

— Dan Fougelberg

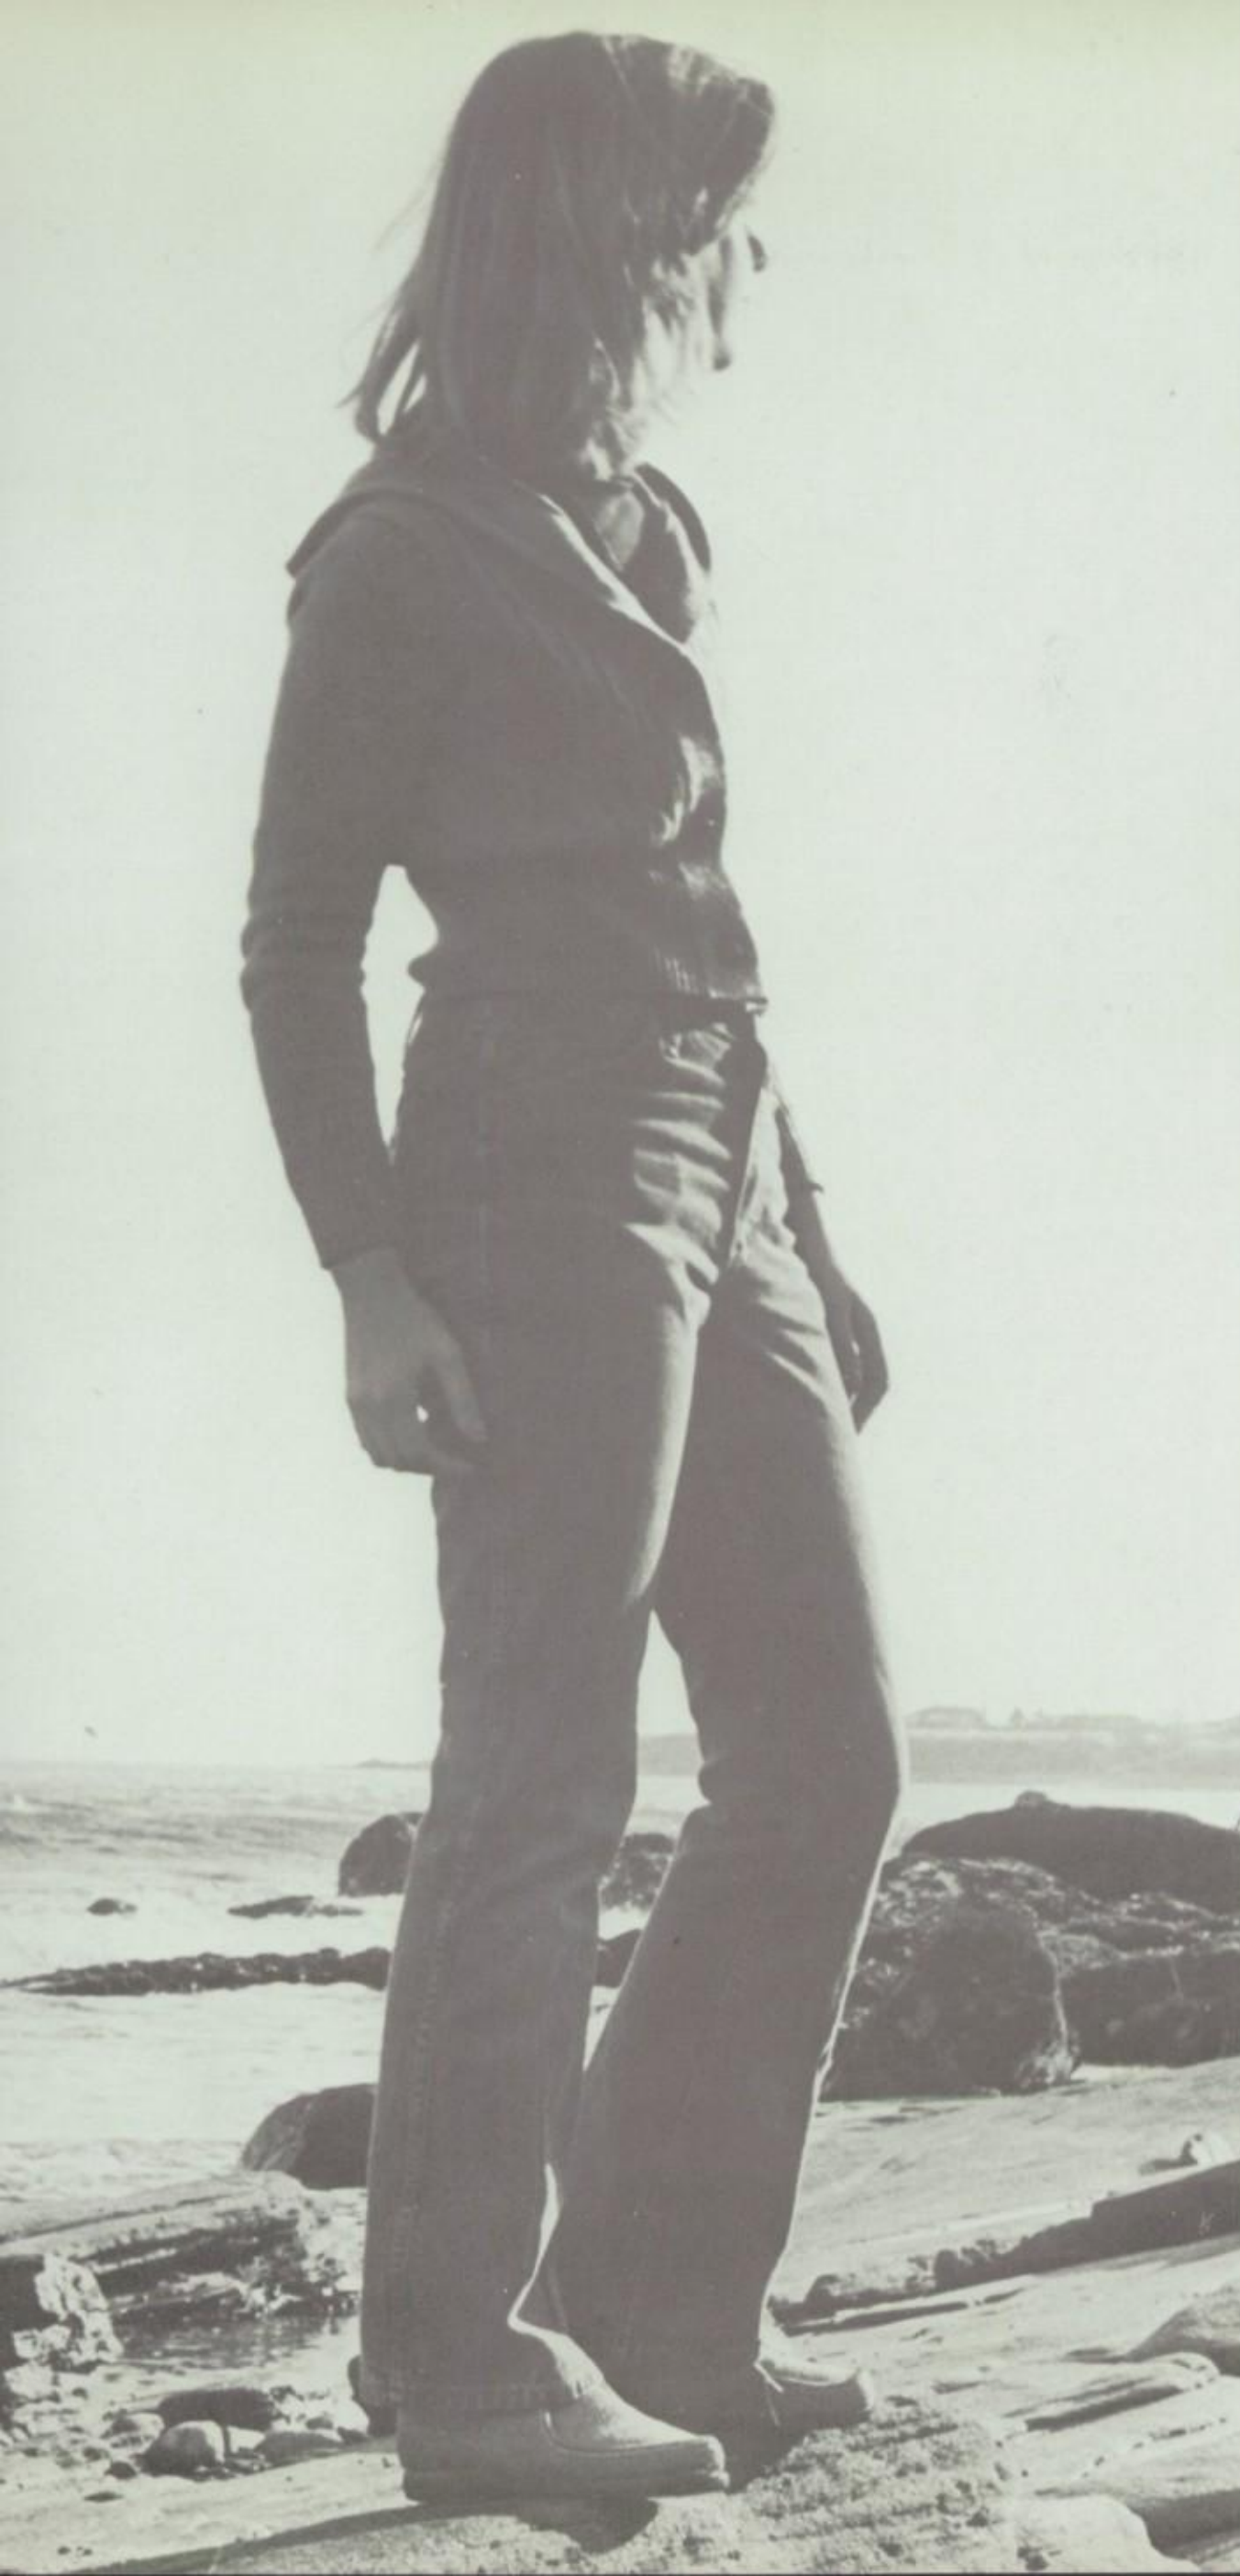

Jeanne Goldman

Cindy Gray

I thought of happiness, how it is woven Out of the silence in the empty house each day
And how it is not sudden and it is not given But is creation itself like the growth of a tree.
No one has seen it happen,
 but inside the bark Another circle is growing in the expanding ring.
No one has heard the root go deeper in the dark,
But the tree is lifted by this inward work
And its plumes shine, and its leaves are glittering.
Life is peculiar, said Jeremy.
As compared with what?
 asked the spider.
— E. B. White

I've had my share of broken dreams,
And more than a couple of falls.
And in chasing what I thought were moonbeams — I have run into a couple of walls.
But in looking back At the faces I've been,
I'd sure be the first one to say —
When I look at myself today,
I wouldn't have done it
Any other way.

Rockless,
Through rain, sleet, hail or snow, if your there I'll have a jolly good time.
Cuz if your ~~the~~ with people ya like a whole bunch you'll have a good time no matter where you are, Cheerio,
Love, Carol
